Accounting MOVE Project Recognizes Firm for Advancing Women's Professional Development

SAN FRANCISCO (PRWEB) June 06, 2017

Novogradac & Company LLP was named by the Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance and the American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants (AWSCPA) to the Accounting MOVE Project's 2017 Best Public Accounting Firms for Women list.

The Best Accounting Firms for Women list names accounting firms that best demonstrate three characteristics:

- Consistent, measurable progress in advancing women to leadership.
- Proven and continually evolving programs that retain and advance women.
- Clear and compelling integration of the business case for advancing women with business results.

At Novogradac & Company LLP, women comprise 32.6 percent of all partners and principals. The firm also ranks among the best at retaining women from senior level managers to partner.

"Novogradac & Company LLP has built a collaborative and supportive environment for all employees," said Diana Letsinger, CPA and partner in Novogradac & Company's Long Beach, Calif., office. "We understand that in order to retain and develop talented women we need to offer more than just a linear path and provide an environment that allows for personalized growth trajectories."

"We are honored to be named to the Accounting MOVE Project's 2017 Best Public Accounting Firms for Women list," said Michael Novogradac, CPA and managing partner of Novogradac & Company. "At Novogradac & Company, we are committed to fostering professional development of our employees, which allows us to provide excellent service to our clients."
